Nginku Kulitja

Born 31/12/1931
Language Group None
Region Western / Central Desert

Nginku was born in Warakurna, which is her father's county and grandfather's country. Nginku grew up in Warakurna and saw her first white fella at Kartjiungu, which is the first creek west of Docker River. The man was riding a camel there. Nginku's mother's country is Irruntu. When Nginku was young she would travel with her family to Areyonga for rations and this is where she would meet her husband.

Nginku has been painting, weaving tjanpi and carving punu for many years.
