

Short St. Gallery

Angkaliya Nelson

Born	1969
Language Group	Pitjantjara
Region	Western / Central Desert

Angkaliya was born in Ernabella mission and grew up in Amata, South Australia, where she married with two children. In the late 1970's she moved west to Pipalyatjara, near her parent's country with her family and brother, Sean Williamson. She is a highly skilled weaver and Tjanpi artsit and woodcarver in addition to her painting, telling stories of the Seven Sisters and Mamungara.

Group Exhibitions

2018	ArtMark Gallery, Canberra ACT - Ninuku-Seven Sisters
2018	Better World Arts, Adelaide SA - Sala 2018 - South Australia Living Artist Festival
2008	Nomad Art Gallery Darwin NT - ninuku Artsit print exhibition 'Pirinyi'