

Short St. Gallery

Carol Young

Born 1972
Language Group Pitjantjatjara
Region NGY Lands - Ngaanyatjarra

Biography

Carol Young was born in Alice Springs in 1972 and grew up in Amata and Pipalyatjara in the remote Anangu Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara Lands in North Western South Australia. Carol is the daughter of local cultural leader and camel herder Stanley Young and the granddaughter of the late Nyankula Watson, an important Western Desert painter whose stories about the country in this area she now tells.

Group Exhibitions

2018 Art Mob, Hobart TAS - Ninuku Kala
2017 Chapman & Bailey Gallery, Melbourne VIC - Ninuku Prints
2016 Art Mob Gallery, Hobart TAS - Kala Ngura ngayuku - Colours of My home/Country
2006 Tuggeranong Arts Centre, Canberra ACT - Skin on Skin
2005 Adelaide Festival Centre, Adelaide SA - Anangu Backyard