Biography

Jennifer Inngkatji was born in Ernabella and later moved to Amata Community. Jennifer paints her country and her culture. In her paintings she is remembering important stories passed down to her from her father, mother and grandfather. She is thinking about how a long time ago when they used to look after the country, there was plenty of food and families were happy travelling around from place to place. Jennifer is sister to Nyumiti Burton and also paints large scale collaborative works with her.
