

Short St. Gallery

Venetta Yanawana

Born 1988
Region Bidyadanga

Biography

Venetta Yanawana lives and paints in Bidyadanga, the largest remote Aboriginal community in Western Australia, located 180km south of Broome.

Venetta comes from a family of extremely talented and successful artists, including Lydia Balbal and Daniel Walbidi.

She is currently working as an arts worker, stretching, priming, preparing canvases and cataloguing finished works online. She enjoys fishing, going on country and spending time with her children and family.

Venetta paints Nyagumarta Warren, the country her old people used to live on.

Exhibitions

2023	Revealed Exhibition, New & Emerging WA Aboriginal Artists, Fremantle Arts Centre, Perth WA
2023	Shinju Matsuri Exhibition Art Exhibition, Broome WA
2023	Kimberley Art and Photographic Prize, Broome WA
2024	Desert Meets the Seaside, Lawson Gallery, WA
2025	Jury Art Prize, Courthouse Gallery, WA
2025	Radius 6.0, Courthouse Gallery, WA