Chubasco Pascoe

Birth Year 1976
Language Group Burarra
Region

Burarra artist Chubasco Pascoe was born in Mewirnba and lives and works in Maningrida community in the Northern Territory. He is of Duwa moiety. His mother's country is at Gamurra Gu-yurra.

His bark paintings often depict local animals and plants such as yams, butterfly vines, goannas or blanket lizards. He also paints images of ceremonial objects such as morning star poles.

His work is distinctive for its graphic, pared-back style. It was featured in Maningrida Arts & Culture's stand at Tarnanthi in Adelaide in 2019.

Most recently, under the tutelage of his brother Jeremiah Bonson, Chubasco has begun depicting Warraburnburn spirits in their carved wooden form.
