

Short St. Gallery

Amanda Daegar

Born 1993
Language Pitjantjatjara
Region APY Lands

Amanda Daegar was born in Ernabella (Pukatja). She grew up with her family in the APY Lands, before moving to Adelaide. Amanda paints walka that she learned from her grandmother and family members. She paints in the style of the Ernabella walka, referencing the cultural and artistic lineage of her family.

Amanda creates paintings, ceramics, and illustration artworks. She was a lead artist on Iwiri Arts' animation project 'iti Mamu' and has exhibited her paintings and ceramics both locally and nationally.

Group Exhibitions

2024 Kapi Wala, St Peters Town Hall Gallery, Adelaide, SA
2024 Tjulpun-tjulpunpa, Aboriginal Contemporary, Sydney, NSW