Glenda Poulson

Born 1963
Region Papunya, NT

Glenda Napangardi Poulson and her sisters Alice and Maureen live together in Papunya where they also paint together as Artists.

The sisters' older brother Brogas Tjapangrti, who now lives in Alice Springs, painted with them in the 1970s and early 1980s. Their father was Jimmy Tjukurpa, a Ngaliya man whose country was Kunatjarri and Pikilyi. Their mother was Pilyari Napurrula, a sister of Johnny Warangkula Tjupurrula, who shared with him country around Ilpili, Kalipinyapa and Tjikari which Glenda and her siblings also share.

Glenda is a dedicated Grandmother and takes pride in looking after her family. She also currently works at the school. Glenda manages to fit in time to spend at the Art Centre working and adapting her shaped designs representing her main dreaming story of Kalipinyapa, a water dreaming site west of Kintore.
