Serina Delisha Mitchell

Born 1979
Language Ngaanyatjarra
Region Alice Springs

Serina Delisha Mitchell was born in Alice Springs and grew up in Warakurna, in the heart of the Ngaanyatjarra Lands. She is a dedicated painter who carries on the strong artistic traditions of her community.

Serina paints the Kungkarangkalpa (Seven Sisters) Tjukurpa, a major ancestral story shared across the Central and Western Deserts. Her work reflects deep cultural knowledge and a strong connection to Country, passed down through generations.
