Ned Grant

Born	1941 - 2021
Language	Pitjantjatjara
Region	The Pilbara

Ned Grant was born near Papatatjara in the north-east quadrant of Spinifex Country in the Great Victoria Desert, WA. During the Aboriginal Evangelical Mission (AEM) sweep through Spinifex in the late 1950's Ned was taken into Cundeelee Mission with older brother, Ted (dec) and younger brother Fred. Ned was a nyiingka (segregated bush boy) when he came in and was inducted into Men's Law in the range's country north-west of Laverton.

Ned, a senior man by the early 1980's, helped drive the return to Spinifex country. Today Ned is the main ceremonial leader of the Tjintu (sun side) of Spinifex society.

Ned has been painting since 1997. His works have been included in major exhibitions nationally and internationally. Ned was one of 17 men who collaboratively painted their particular estates, which merged together, formed the Men's Native Title painting. Ned continues to paint his "run" - the area around where he was born and subsequently lost his umbilical cord.

Over the life of the project Ned has not been a prolific individual painter. He has, however, been an integral contributor to various men's collaborative works.
