

Short St. Gallery

Veronica Djanghara

Born 1961
Region Kalumburu

Biography

Veronica was born in Kalumburu, when the nuns were also the nurses, and is one of fourteen children. Veronica's Dreaming is the Porcupine (Echidna) that shouts out at night. Veronica's father was a stockman droving from place to place from Kalumburu to Landsdowne. He came to Kalumburu and met Veronica's mother at 16, and they got married there. He was also was a skilled dancer at corroboree. His brother Waigan Djanghara, was a famous painter who's work has been included in national gallery collections. Veronica began to paint in her 40s, inspired by Kalumburu artist and sister Sylvia Djanghara.

Group Exhibitions

2019 In Ochre, Artitja Fine Art, South Fremantle, Perth WA
2018 Community Impact Expo, King & Wood Mallesons, Canberra ACT