Aaron Pei Pei

Born 1970
Language Pitjantjatjara
Region Docker River : NT

Aaron lives in Kaltukatjara, NT (Docker River) and has been painting since 2013. Aaron has developed a distinct signature style of naive, figurative depiction of the animals and landscape of the country surrounding Kaltukatjara community. The camel - or kamela in desert Kriol - is an ubiquitous presence in his canvases, which are also often populated by other desert wildlife such as horses, rabbits, dingoes and kangaroos (malu). In recent years, Aaron has garnered attention for his contemporary and unique works, and his works have been exhibited in a number of significant shows.
